The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, January 8. 1708.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 14.

Naples, December 20.

A Placard was publiſh'd ſome Days ago, by which all Spaniſh Soldiers, who ſerv'd the former Government, are commanded to take Service in the German Troops within 24 Hours, or to depart the Kingdom. This Placard had that Effect, that a Regiment of thoſe Soldiers of 1100 Men, is already form'd and muſter'd, and Don Criſtofolo de Ibara is made Collonel of it. The 9th the Earth was felt to move a little here. From Calabria and Apulia 16 Tartans laden with Corn are arriv'd here; and give an Account, that two Sicilian Galleys being by a Storm driven aſhore on the Coaſt of Calabria, one of them was ſiez'd by the Peaſants, but the other got off with the Tide and ſtood out to Sea.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 14.

Rome, Dec. 24. A Troop of the Pope's Dragoons, commanded by the Marquis della Pena, is march'd from hence for Ferrara, becauſe the Imperialiſts do not only demand Paſſage for ſome Troops from Lombardy through the Territories of the Church, but likewiſe for 3000 Horſe which they deſign to ſend from Naples to Milan, becauſe Horſe are of no Uſe to them in that Kingdom. Upon this ſeveral Congregations have been held, and 'tis ſaid the Pope has anſwer'd the Imperial Generals, that he will allow thoſe Forces to paſs through his Territories, but that they ſhould ſubſiſt themſelves at their own expence. On Saturday laſt an Expreſs arriv'd from Bologna, upon which his Holineſs held a Congregation on Sunday and Wedneſday, and 'tis ſaid it was reſolv'd to give Subſiſtance to the foremention'd Imperial Troops, to avoid all Conteſt with the Imperialiſts.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 13.

Turin, Dec. 20. The 14th Inſtant Proof was taken of 6 Cannon and 6 Mortars, that were new-caſt out of ſome broken Artillery which the French left behind them when they abandon'd their Camp before this City. And theſe new Pieces proving all to be well caſt, his Royal Highneſs has given Order for new-caſting all the old unſerviceable Cannon and Mortars in our Arſenal. The 17th his Royal Highneſs paſs'd a Reſolution to enlarge the Eſplanade before our Citadel, and to make it ſquare, according to an old Project of his Predeceſſors: To this End a conſiderable Number of Houſes and Palaces that were much damag'd in the laſt Siege but have ſince been repair'd, will be pull'd down: And this Work will be begun immediately after New Year's Day. The Count of Barmiolo was impriſon'd Yeſterday in our Citadel, for injuring a Prieſt; and Complaints being alſo brought in againſt him [illegible] his Lordſhips, he will be call'd [illegible]erſions. The Garriſon of Suza is frequently chang'd; and the new Fortifications about that Place are carry'd on as faſt as the Seaſon will permit: Great Magazines are erecting there. The Recruits and new Levies for recruiting and augmenting his Royal Highneſs's Forces, go on ſucceſsfully; and no neceſſary Preparations of War are omitted for opening the Campaign early.

Paris, Jan. 10. 'The Officers of our Armies are 'more than ordinarily diligent to get Men to fill up 'their Troops. The Report holds, that the King 'has reſolv'd to be firſt in the Field in all Parts, in 'order to ſtrike ſome Blow before the Allies are in 'a Condition to prevent it: But 'tis ſaid to be in 'Spain particularly where his Majeſty will endeavour to improve his Superiority; propoſing if he 'can once put a Period to the War on that Side, 'to make the better Appearance elſewhere. The 'Duke of Berwick, who was already come into 'France in his Way to Court, was met by an Or'der to turn back to Spain, and take proper Mea'ſures that all may be ready for Action at the Ar'rival of the Duke of Orleans, who reckons to be 'going for that Kingdom by the Middle of Febru'ary at furtheſt. The Recruits which the King 'furniſhes to the Army in Spain are order'd to march 'by ſmall Companies, and thoſe rais'd in Provence 'and Dauphine are already actually on the March 'for Pampelona. The Marſhal de Villars has of'fer'd to lend the King 200000 Livres, ſome ſay 'a greater Sum, for 2 Years without Intereſt. Whe'ther this Offer be made on a Deſign concerted 'with the Court to incite other Perſons of Quality 'to do the like, or whether it be out of Loyalty 'and Generoſity, he is very much prais'd for it.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 13.

Luxembourg, Jan. 9. Two Bavarian Regiments, recruited, march'd Yeſterday for Namur. From the great Preparations made here, 'tis conjectur'd that the King of France has a Deſign to execute on the Moſelle.

Cambray, Jan. 9. Never were ſo great Preparations of War ſeen in theſe Parts as at this Time. The Fortifications of this City and of Peronne are ſtrengthening with ſeveral new Works.

Liſle, Jan. 10. Orders are come hither for preparing Stables for 2000 Horſe. Inſtead of Money, the Villages of the French Flanders are to furniſh Horſes for remounting our Dragoons: In Order to which, a Liſt is taking of all the Peaſants Horſes.

Tournay, Jan. 10. Orders are expected from Court, for ſetting Men to work on the Lines between this City and Liſle. The French Officers are very diligent to recruit their Companies, for which Service they have receiv'd the neceſſary Sums from the Commiſſaries of War. A great Quantity of Meal and Oats is brought hither for the Subſiſtance of the King's Forces. The Officers being furniſh'd with Money, Recruits, eſpecially for Horſe, come in tolerably well.
